SRI GANESHA SONG

JAYA JAYA JAYA GANA NAAYAKA

JAYA JAYA VIGHNA VINASHAKA

JAYA' SHUBHA MANGALA DAYAKA

VIDHYA BUDHI PRADAYAKA.

GAJA VADANA GOWRI NANDANA (2)

GANGA DHARA SHIVA SHAMBHO NANDANA (2)

JAYA JAYA JAYA GANA NAYAKA.....(REPEAT)

Meaning: Victory to Ganapathy, the leader of the Ganas. He helps us get over obstacles in life. He gives us knowledge, and we pray to him prior to doing anything auspicious. He is the son of Parvati and Shiva - Shiva, who bears Ganga on his head.

Jaya ganesha jaya ganesha jaya ganesha deva Maata jaaki Paarvati pitaamaha deva

Ekadanta dayavanta char bhujadhaari Maate upar tilaka biraje moose ki savaari

Andh ko aankh de kodiyan do kaaya
Bhajan ko putra de nirdhan ko maaya

Paan chade phool chade aur chade meva Soorya shyam sharan me aaye suphal ki jai seva

Chhoto So Mero Madan Gopaal (meaning)

This bhajan describes Shri Krishna & his life when he was a young boy living in Vraj. He was a cowherd and he used take the cows to graze in the forest along with the other cowherd boys.

The first paragraph says that the cows are small, the cowherds are small and my Madan Gopaal is small too.

chhoti, chhotey, chhoto	- small
gaiyaan	- cows
gwaal	- cowherd
mero	- my
Madan Gopaal	- another name for Shri Krishna

The second paragraph describes how they walk when they go to the forest for grazing. The cows are in the front, the cowherds are behind them and in the middle is my Madan Gopaal.

kahaa	- where
chaaley	- walks
aagey	- in front
peechhey	- behind
beech mey	- in the middle

The third paragraph describes the color of their skin. The cows are black, the cowherds are fair and my Madan Gopaal has a blue complexion.

kaiso	- which, how
rang	- color
kaari	- black
gorey	- fair-skinned
Shyaam	- dark, blue (also another name for Shri Krishna)
varan	- complexion

The fourth paragraph describes what they eat. The cows eat grass, the cowherds drink milk, my Madan Gopaal eats butter.

kyaa	- what
khaavey	- eats
ghaas	- grass
doodh	- milk
peevey	- drinks
maakhan	- butter

The fifth paragraph describes where they sleep. The cows sleep on the ground, the cowherds sleep on a mattress, Madan Gopaal sleeps in his mother's lap.

sovey	- sleeps
bhoi	- floor, ground
sej	- thin Indian mattress
Maiyaan	- mother
goad	- lap
